Driving South on I-35 other vehicle bumped passenger side of our truck I looked over (I was sitting in passenger seat) and other vehicle hit our truck 2 more times.

we pulled over to the right side of the road and other car pulled over in front of us. He then put his car in reverse and backed into our truck. my husband and I got out of the truck. The other man also got out of his car and he was NAKED. The man stated we hit his car and my husband told him no he hit us. The man then tried to get back in his car and leave but his car would not start. My husband told him he can not leave the police are on the way. the man As we were trying to look at the damage to our truck, the man disappeared. We waited for police. we then saw police cars racing past us. we waited a while for the police to come talk to us. We went home after. No one called came. we called the police station and was asked to come make a statement
